

Central Okanagan Retired Teachers' Association

"To Hell with the Bells" Breakfast and General Meeting

3 September, 2019

Harvest Golf Club, Kelowna, B.C.

- Proceeds from Breakfast $1,630.00 (65 people attended)
- Cost of Breakfast $1,703.00 (we paid for 70 plates)

Welcome

- Cathie Mutter, new CORTA President, welcomed attendees and introduced members of the Executive
- Cathie stressed to everyone present that this was a social event and that we should have times during the year when we met for activities, outings and visits in order to socialise
- The two new retirees in attendance were welcomed
- A bell was rung at 8.30 am and at 9 am to herald the starting of the new school year and good wishes sent to all our active teaching colleagues
- Brenda Gilbert was appointed as CORTA Secretary for 2019-2020—thanks to Brenda for stepping up

Door Prizes

- Books, wine etc. were awarded to lucky ticket holders
- The 50/50 draw of $139.00 was claimed by Colleen Edstrom

Dates to Remember

- All Candidates Election forum on Saturday, 7th September, @ 7pm - Mary Irwin Theatre
- Candidates Forum on Thursday, 19th September, @ 7pm, Senior Citizens' Assoc., Richter St.
- CORTA General Meeting and Luncheon on Monday, 7 October @ 11.30 am
- All information available on the CORTA website